

2017 - OPPORTUNITIES TO PARTNER WITH WCAC.....

Please Consider Sponsoring One of Our Outreach or Educational Programs!

Caring Art WCAC introduced this program in 2015 to address the social interaction needs of the elderly and home-bound. We hold art classes at the JCC Rec. Center and Grove Outreach Center which are open to elderly citizens and their own caregivers. This pairing eliminates transportation and care challenges during the class itself, and offers bright spots of activity for the elderly and their own caregivers.	Buddy Art This free program is designed to provide a variety of art activities for children with special needs and/or physical disabilities. WCAC sponsors this program in cooperation with student volunteers from the College of William and Mary and James City County Parks and Recreation. We offer art activities based on the ages, abilities and interests of the children, and each “Buddy” works with children one-on-one as needed.
Kid’s Art Day A fun annual event that is open to all area youth through fifth grade. Children who enter will create posters around a theme during their classes in public and private schools. At a designated time during each year, individual posters will be entered into a contest and the winning poster will be used to commemorate Kid’s Art Day.	High School Scholarships Each spring, WCAC awards scholarships to area graduating seniors who best demonstrate their ability in art and also who plan to continue their education at the college level majoring in art.
